INTERIM MANAGEMENT REPORT

Chairman's Statement

Performance

The six months to 31 December 2011 were extremely disappointing for European equities as concerns about the Eurozone debt crisis continued to dominate our sector.

Our NAV total return per share was -31.8% over the period compared to -27.7% for our benchmark. Our share price total return was -35.1%, as our discount widened to 22.5% over the period.

Over the three years to 31 December 2011 our NAV total return was 25.5% compared to a 22.3% return for the benchmark.

Investment income was 54.8% higher than the income earned in the first half of the previous financial year.

Gearing

During the period we increased gearing (calculated as investments as a percentage of net assets) from 2.4% at 30 June 2011 to 9.4% at 31 December 2011.

Share buy-backs

We have carried out few buy-backs over the last six months as both share price and NAV volatility has been very high as we have been restructuring the portfolio. We propose to be more active now some signs of stability have returned to the market and the process of restructuring is largely complete.

Prospects, principal risks and uncertainties

The short term outlook seems set to remain dominated by politics, with investors trying to second guess policy action by European heads of state. This is a task made particularly difficult by the numerous national elections to be held over the next few months. However, it is important for investors not to lose sight of the relatively benign conditions for a number of companies, with interest rates at low levels and corporate balance sheets robust. This is likely to lead to an active environment for mergers and acquisition activity which should be beneficial for the small cap investor.

Valuations are likely to remain volatile, but this is a market which should provide some attractive opportunities and I look forward to reporting on our progress in our annual report.

Audley Twiston-Davies Chairman

Manager's Report

The second half of 2011 proved to be disappointing for both European equities and the TR European Growth Trust. It was a long way removed from the start I had hoped for as manager of the Company.

It was a period when pessimism abounded as investors were unable to look beyond the Eurozone debt crisis. Politicians seemed both clueless and helpless. Their earlier intervention in Greece imposing losses on creditors meant that Eurozone debt was no longer seen as a safe asset. Investors became worried about contagion across the Eurozone despite protestations from politicians that Greece was a "one off".

In the summer months the fund suffered due to a relatively high cyclical exposure. These stocks were hit as investors became concerned about the global economy stalling as the Eurozone crisis played out. The sell-off, as always, was fairly indiscriminate. In many cases these are the same stocks that have rallied very hard as we have entered the New Year. The "real" economy has not been hit as hard as many envisaged in summer.

It was into this background that we attempted to reposition the Company and give the Company a more stable core of high return businesses. This has led to high stock turnover during the period. We have introduced new holdings such as Ingenico, a global leader in retail payment terminals and services, and D'ieteren, the Belgian windscreen repair company. Other companies such as Selçuk, the Turkish drug distribution company, and CFAO, the French company that distributes cars and pharmaceuticals in Africa, have been sold.

The sell-off in the second half of last year created a number of interesting opportunities for the Company, particularly in Italy where the equity market was severely hit. There have been a number of false dawns in Italy and huge problems remain, such as labour inflexibility, bureaucracy and tax evasion. However, the technocrat (if undemocratic) government led by Mr Monti brings hope and many valuations are extremely attractive. We have added positions in Italian companies with a strong global presence. These new holdings include De'Longhi, the leader in coffee machines and Kenwood kitchen appliances, Sorin, a medical technology company specializing in cardiovascular disease, and Amplifon, the hearing aid retailer.

As we have entered the New Year investors have realised the world is still turning, with the US seeing early shoots of recovery and the emerging markets continuing to grow. The European Central Bank has at the very least delayed a banking crisis with the Long Term Refinancing Operation Liquidity scheme. We, like others, expect Europe to continue to provide a muted economic backdrop, particularly with the German inspired "fiscal compact". Despite that, we think there is a large number of European companies on attractive valuations that can benefit from growth outside of the region.

The Eurozone still has a need for greater integration and a redistribution of wealth across the region. It still remains unclear how Greece will be a "one off" and whether it can remain within the Eurozone. The "fiscal compact" is a very necessary stage one but ultimately must be followed by a growth stimulus. Anything else is neither socially acceptable nor politically viable. People, especially the young, must be given hope.

However, 2012 does offer hope for equity markets with the backdrop of low interest rates, quantitative easing, the likelihood of increasing mergers and acquisitions, strong corporate balance sheets and attractive valuations. It is unlikely to be a smooth ride but I remain cautiously optimistic about the months ahead. We can find exciting new ideas to make money for our investors.
